DIPLOMA HUGO

HUMANITIES AND GLOBAL CHALLENGES

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES
AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Description and objectives

The Diploma in Humanities and Global Challenges, offered by the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, aims to provide training in the Humanities with a particular emphasis on International Relations from a European perspective. It thus becomes an offer of special interest for international students who come to Comillas to study the degrees offered at CIHS. Students who wish to take this Diploma will have the opportunity to take subjects that promote a rigorous humanistic education.

Content and structure

The Diploma consists of 24 ECTS credits. Its duration is a minimum of one term and a maximum of one academic year. Enrolled students adapt the curriculum to their specific needs and interests, depending on their previous training, the specialization of their studies and the orientations received by their universities of origin. To do so, they choose from the general offer of the Diploma courses that together add up to at least 24 ECTS. If you do not pass at least 24 ECTS credits, you will not be entitled to the Diploma, but you may request the issuance of a certificate of attendance.
