TEXTBOOKS

EU Competition Law

In this course there are no compulsory textbooks. The study of the relevant topics will not be based on any specific textbook, but on the lectures delivered by the professor. Therefore, it is extremely important that the students take notes during the class. The lectures will be supported by slides (PowerPoint) that are purely for guidance and in no case can replace the explanations of the professor. Consequently, the notes need to be accurate and complete. The slides will be duly delivered by the professor via Moodle.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

General methodological aspects of the subject
Contact hours methodology: Activities
The methodology of the course will be based on a combination of in person interactive lectures and case studies.

Lectures will be dedicated to explaining the main concepts and theories related to the topic of the session, whilst practical aspects will be explored by means of case studies based on legislation, case law, fiction texts, academic papers, etc.

Independent study methodology: Activities

- With a view to having fruitful classes, students need to prepare the reading material that the professor will deliver in advance of each session.
- The Continuous Evaluation activity and, primarily, the preparation of the Final Exam, as well as night readings, will involve an important workload in terms of independent study (see "Grade Evaluation and Criteria").

SUMMARY OF STUDENT WORK HOURS

Activity	Number of class hours	Number of independent study hours	Total number of hours
Lecture	5		5
Practical class	5		5
Class discussion	4		4
Work in collaboratio	3	10	13
Final Exam	3	15	18
Other individual work		5	5

GRADE EVALUATION AND CRITERIA

The grade distribution of the course is as follows:

- Final Exam = 50% of the final grade of the course
- Continuous Evaluation = 40% of the final grade of the course
- Attendance = 10% of the final grade of the course

FINAL EXAM

- The Final Exam will be taken in session 8 and represents 50% of the final grade of the course.
- It is a paper, in person, closed-booked exam that includes the content delivered in all previous sessions (1-7) and consists in multiple-choice and true-false questions. Wrong answers are not penalized.

Review: Following the Exam, the professor will go through the correct answers of the test. Attendance is mandatory.

CONTINUOUS EVALUATION: Group Case Study

- The students must produce a Written Group Assignment that accounts for 40% of the final grade of the course.
- This Assignment is a grading activity that will consist in the preparation of a fictional case study on a major domain of EU Competition Law: Abuse of dominant position. The students will have the opportunity to choose one working topic among different options.
- The above work will be based on the contents delivered in class.
- The groups will be created in session 3 (Monday 7th October) and the working topics will be allocated also in this session. Precise instructions on timing, content and format will be available on Moodle on the same day.
- DUE DATE: the Assignment will be submitted to the professor by university email on Monday 21st October.
- The grade of the Assignment will be the same for all group members.

ATTENDANCE

- Attendance is mandatory and represents 10% of the final grade of the course.
- I refer to the MIEBL policy on student attendance and lateness.
