

Diploma in Legal Studies in Spain

2026-2027

Universidad Pontificia Comillas
Faculty of Law

Diploma in Legal Studies in Spain (DLS).

Description and objectives

It is an optional non-degree programme designed for exchange students nominated to study at the Comillas Faculty of Law either for one semester or the full academic year. It covers different courses within the field of International Legal Studies as well as a course about cultural aspects of Spain and a Spanish language course.

Exchange students can apply for the Diploma alongside their Comillas courses during their exchange period at the Faculty of Law.

In addition to receiving the transcript of records a certificate will be awarded as long as the student successfully completes at least 20 ECTS credits from the programme.

Requirements

In order to be eligible for this Diploma exchange students must choose at least 20 ECTS from the list and pass those 20 credits at the end of the semester.

Students may put some of the courses that they may have selected for the normal enrolment for exchange or add additional courses from the list below.

Language of tuition

Classes are taught in English (except the Spanish language course).

Duration

One semester, either in the fall or the spring semester.
